

Our Hiring Process Explained

Once you have decided to apply for a position with Sodexo Remote Sites, follow these steps

Search Available Positions

Visit the job search page and apply to the listings of your choice

Create Profile and Apply

Create your profile and upload your resume for review by our recruiting team and hiring managers.

Interview Process

Our recruitment team reviews your information against the requirements for the position. The best qualified candidates are contacted for a phone interview.

Preliminary Job Offer

If you are selected, a tentative job offer will be extended, at which time new hire paperwork is completed and written information about your initial job assignment is provided.

Pre-Employment Screening

Once paperwork has been completed, background checks are conducted and pre-employment physicals and testing scheduled.

Employment Offer

Based upon successful background checks and satisfactory physicals and testing results, an employment offer is extended to the successful candidate.

Congratulations - the job is yours

Please be aware that these steps may take several weeks to complete due to the screening process involved.